

Donor benchmarks for re-engaging the inclusive government

Source: Compiled from various donor and civil society sources

Commitment to:	Pre-phase	Phase 1	Phase 2
Full and equal access to humanitarian assistance	Announced complete opening of humanitarian space which is effectively communicated to all levels of government.	Government announces commitment to free and open access for humanitarian assistance based on UN needs assessment. Independent monitoring has established that humanitarian assistance has been distributed on the basis of need and without political interference.	Independent monitoring has established that humanitarian assistance has been distributed on the basis of need and without political interference. Increased government involvement in enabling effective humanitarian relief.
Macroeconomic stabilisation	Announced commitment and start on dialogue with regional and international financial institutions on economic reform.	IMF visit, full information disclosure and substantive policy discussions with government. Announcement of stabilisation package.	Track record on economic stabilisation developed.
Restoration of the rule of law, judiciary and respect for property rights	Release of political prisoners. Announcement of measures to restore the rule of law.	Implementation of measures to restore the rule of law and protect property rights. Formal demobilisation of

Restoration of the rule of law, judiciary and respect for property rights	Release of political prisoners. Announcement of measures to restore the rule of law.	Implementation of measures to restore the rule of law and protect property rights. Formal demobilisation of militia and disbanding of bases.
Democratic process and human rights standards including freedom of expression and media	Lifting of constraints on the media. Immediate end to political violence and harassment of members of parliament and civil society organisations and announcement of end of impunity. Announcement to repeal or amend repressive legislation imposing excessive constraints on fundamental freedoms.	Concrete steps taken to repeal repressive media and other legislation including AIPPA, POSA, Broadcast Services Act, Interception of Communications Act as well as allowing the Daily News to recommence publishing. Formation of commissions on constitution and transitional justice.	All political violence has completely stopped, all bases are being dismantled. All constraints to media freedom and independence of the media have been removed.
Timely elections held in accordance with international standards	The setting out of a road map to the next national elections, with accompanying guarantees that there will be conducted freely and fairly in full view of the international community. Open and immediate call for all election observers interested in observing the process.		